Maia Batumashvili was born in Tbilisi, Georgia in 1978. Since a young age, Maia has loved to draw and is inspired by the children's books and cartoons she grew up with. After graduating from two art institutes, Maia worked on an animation project before finally realising her dream of illustrating children's books. When Maia is not creating imaginative worlds, she enjoys spending time with her three beautiful children and her dog, Tayo.

ADVANCE INFORMATION SHEET

Be Brave, Lucy

Kelly-Anne Norman
Illustrated by Maia Batumashvili

Join Lucy and her beloved companion, Daisy, on their heart-warming journey of love, courage, and friendship.

Embark on a heart-warming journey with 'Be Brave, Lucy', a delightful tale that captivates the bonds of courage and friendship. Join Lucy and her beloved teddy, Daisy, as they explore the wonderful world of kindergarten. Wrapped in Mummy's comforting hugs and Daisy's tender embrace, Lucy discovers the bravery within her heart. With enchanting illustrations, this charming children's book resonates with parents, celebrating the timeless bond between a child, imagination, and unwavering love.

- 'Be Brave, Lucy' is perfect for young readers, inviting them into a world of bravery, companionship, and wonder.
- An engaging and relatable story for children, allowing them to learn the importance of friendships, courage and compassion.
- Vibrant illustrations that children will connect with by accurately depicting their feelings, interests, and day-to-day lives.

Kelly-Anne Norman has had a passion for reading for as long as she can remember. Growing up, she could usually be found squirreled away within the sanctuary of the school library, most often with her nose buried between the pages of a fantasy novel. Kelly-Anne feels extremely passionate about promoting a life-long love of reading to children of all ages and believes that books have the power to change lives. She lives in sunny Brisbane with her husband, five children and an extraordinarily perfect pup named Mia.
