The third novel in a trilogy with further profound adventures for Anitha, who travels to Kerala, India to stay with her grandmother and learn more about their magical powers. Anitha become embroiled in a conflict with a corporation who seek to develop an ancient sacred woods. Through telepathy and her paranormal powers, Anitha faces incredible challenges, including AI technologies. A fascinating tale exploring the emergence of matriarchal power coming out of traditional patriarchal themes and parallel timelines. J. Zacharias has written another enchanting story in this, her third novel.
