No One Keeps A Secret

By Denise Brown

“Fans of Holly Jackson, Faridah Abike-Iyimide, Kathleen Glasgow, and Kit Frick, will love this new YA murder mystery set in Scotland, from the brilliant Denise Brown.”

When three teens track down a missing chihuahua to an abandoned theme park, they stumble upon a chilling discovery: a corpse, strangled by his own camera strap. The victim was meant to be 400 miles away in London, where he'd promised a lot of people a lot of money. But every one of them has a solid alibi. As Haigh, Cherry, and Sunrise get pulled into the murder investigation, they uncover mafia connections, a still-operating ghost train, and gossiping grannies, revealing their quiet village is far more dangerous than they ever imagined.

“Full of secrecy and suspicion – intense and immediate.” –
Barbara Henderson

About the Author

Denise Brown is a writer, housekeeper, proofreader, and single parent of five children.

Her latest novel with Hashtag Press, It All Started With A Lie, became an instant hit following a successful debut at YALC 2023, and the second edition release of We Know What You Did (November 2024) was a resounding hit at YALC 2024. Denise has had short stories published in various online magazines and anthologies and was also longlisted for the 2019 Mslexia Children's Novel Competition. In 2019 she was longlisted for the Bath Novel Award.

Born in East London, Denise has now settled in Scotland where she feels certain she must have lived in a previous life. She loves dogs and snow globes and has a teensy obsession with Jack Skellington.
