

Rooted in Wonder

Celebrating the World's National Trees

Michelle Cusolito

Illustrated by Marya Wright

The Oak Tree meets Be a Tree

An enchanting, fact-filled picture book celebrating 12 of the world's national trees, including mapped endpapers showing the global reach of the trees.

Discover how local people use each of the trees, their historical significance, the unique creatures that live in and around them and why they are so beloved. Trees include India's Banyan, Chile's Pehuen, Canada's Sugar Maple, England's Oak, South Africa's Yellowwood and more.

This book will teach young people and their families just how uniquely iconic, fabulous and beloved their national trees are to so many cultures around the world.
