Harold Hardrada was the last of the great Viking leaders. Can he make his next adventure the conquest of Anglo-Saxon England!?

Since he was fifteen years old Harold had been a warrior – in Norway, Constantinople, Sicily, and the Holy Land. Now a legendary captain he is invited in 1066 to invade England at the side of Tostig Godwinson – half-brother to the English King

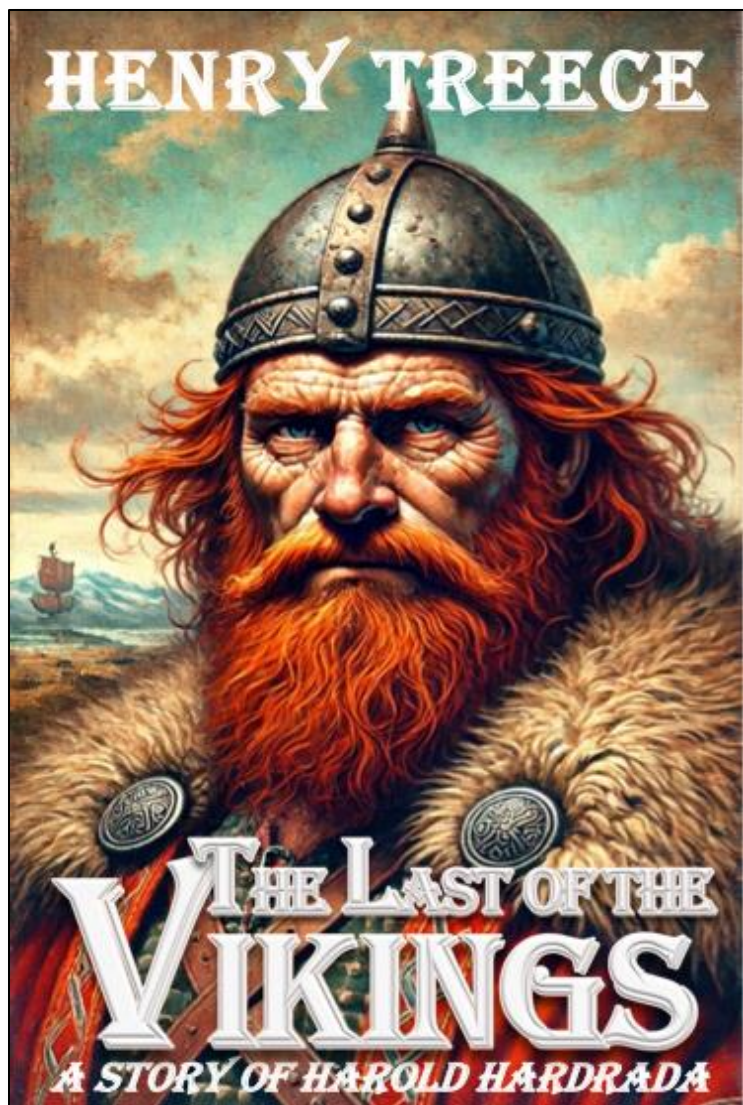

Can he claim the throne? Can he trust Tostig?

But most of all can he beat the combined Anglo-Saxon forces?

'Henry Treece shares with Rosemary Sutcliff, alone of his contemporaries, the ability to recreate the ancient world for children as well as adults.'
